Free Library Service for Tennesseans Who Are Unable to Read Standard Print Due to a Physical Disability
Who can borrow from the library?

- Anyone who has difficulty seeing regular print
- Anyone who cannot hold a book or turn pages
- Anyone who has a reading disability

What can I get from the library?

Books and magazines in audio, braille, and large print, similar to what is available from a public library, such as bestsellers, classics, mysteries, westerns, romances, poetry, biographies, young adult books, children's books, and more. More than forty magazines are available, including Consumer Reports, National Geographic, and People and more.

What's available for kids?

More than 20,000 audio, braille, and large print titles, including print/braille.

Where can I get a player?

Once you are registered for our audio books, a digital talking book player will be loaned to you free-of-charge. Headphones are also available, upon request.

Can I download the books and magazines?

Yes! Once you are registered with the library, you will have access to our BARD (Braille & Audio Reading Download) website to download audio and braille books and magazines.

Books downloaded from BARD may be played on any smartphone, tablet, or on the player we loan to you.

Access to BARD is limited to patrons registered with Tennessee Library for Accessible Books & Media.
